in the last decade a number of women led mosques have emerged in europe and north america in the making of a mosque with female imams jesper petersen documents the serendipitous yet predictable emergence of the mariam mosque in copenhagen the study first demonstrates that individuals facing the unpredictable plays a decisive role in social processes this leads to an investigation of how serendipities are erased when narratives are erected retrospectively in the form of commodified products autobiographical narratives and research furthermore petersen conceptualizes non muslims theological productions of islam islam without the worship of allah so to speak and demonstrates how this influences muslim productions of islam the women s mosque of america analyzes how american muslim women cultivate new forms of islamic authority that contend with gender inequality anti blackness and global islamophobia by approaching the qur an as a tool for social justice and community building providing insights on islamic authority at the intersections of gender religious space and national belonging
